

FACILITY MAINTENANCE

Facility Maintenance is easier with Harrison Contracting Company

Facility is a fairly broad and inclusive term. Often described as a building or place that provides a particular service or used for a particular industry. A facility could be a retail store, library, hospital, restaurant, school, assembly plant, industrial plant, or even an office or warehouse.

The one thing all facilities have in common is that someone has to maintain them. This can be very time consuming and frustrating.

Harrison Contracting Company can help you with this. We can take the headache and frustration out of your facility maintenance needs.

We offer custom work order systems that are designed specifically for your business and your facility's needs. We offer maintenance and emergency services for companies in the retail and commercial industries all over the Southeast region. We can accommodate your needs at any business location before, during, or after working hours.

We offer the following services:

- Re-Fresh Painting
- Re-Imaging
